PHMC State Historical Markers located in Warren, Pennsylvania

Warren County

Courthouse, 204 4th Avenue Formed March 12, 1800 from Allegheny and Lycoming counties. Named for General Joseph Warren, killed at the battle of Bunker Hill. Warren, the county seat, was laid out in 1795. Long known for its oil and timber operations, and site of the Cornplanter Grant.

Conewango

Conewango Creek & PA AVE East
Mid-18th century Seneca village located on site of present Warren.
First mentioned by Bonnecamps, in 1749, as composed of 12 or 13 cabins. Name in Iroquois means
"below the riffles."

Celeron's Expedition

Hickory Street & PA AVE West
In 1749 a French force under Céloron de Blainville entered the Ohio valley by way of Chautauqua Lake and Conewango Creek. A lead plate was buried at the mouth of the Conewango claiming the area for France.
